PRAYER IS IMPORTANT

-Prayers for the families of Reggie and Fred (one of Miss Daisy's clients) in their passing and receiving their rewards.
 -Please keep Becky Beggs and her husband Allen in your prayers. She is suffering from cancer.
 -Ryan & Erin Bliss left for Panama yesterday. Please keep them in your prayers for a bless and safe trip.
 -Sharon Donaghe asked for prayers for her granddaughter Adelynn. She has been very sick.
 -Laura Crownover's friend Val DeVeyra finished her chemo and will be starting radiation soon. Please keep her in your prayers through this phase of her treatment.
 -Please keep Daisy Simmons in your prayers as well as her clients she cares for. Her life is in transition and she has help coming in to assist her. Pray all goes well and she is able to rest more.
 -Please continue to remember those of our number fighting cancer: Gina Baumgardner, Ron Brabac, and Hazel Thompson. Prayers also for their care givers. Also for those with family and friends that are fighting this dreaded disease as well, i.e. Hazel's family members, Val DeVeyra, Rochelle Masterson and Linda Reeves.
 -Please keep Dorothy Cunningham in your prayers as her dialysis continues, as well as Bill as he takes care of her.
 -Tracy Lothery asked for prayers for her cousin Sharon that had a mass removed from her leg. The doctors weren't able to get it all. Pray they find a solution for her and she may be restored to her health.
 -Nathan Trevino, Liz & Chuck Thompson's grandson is due to have his surgery the 9th this week. Pray all the paperwork is in order and it will go smoothly.
 -Please keep the Hopkins in your prayers as they travel.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Many persons have a wrong idea of what constitutes true happiness. It is not attained through self-gratification BUT through fidelity to a worth purpose. `Helen Keller

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

Seek your happiness in the Lord, and He will give you your heart's desire. Give yourself to the Lord, trust in Him, and He will help you.. ~Psalm 37:4-5

ENCOURAGING WORDS

“Getting What We’ve Always Got.”

Henry Ford once said “If you keep on doing what you’ve always done, then you’ll keep on getting what you’ve always got.” Most of the time this adage, or one like it, is used in a negative sense to criticize whatever is being practiced.

Over the years (and especially more recently), those who would like to see certain changes made in the church have been making this statement. They point to a decline in attendance or to a perceived lack of church growth or to a waning interest among a certain group of people toward the church as if, “what we’ve always done” is a bad thing or outdated or plain silly.

Is “change” in the church a bad thing? It’s impossible to lump all “change” into the same category. Are there certain things that the church could improve or do better? Certainly! Should the church evaluate how it can do certain things more effectively? Certainly! But, should “what the church has always done” be automatically looked at as some sort of out-of-date, unsophisticated, irrelevant plan of action for moving forward? Certainly not!

Suppose you think of this expression being used in a positive, commending way. “If you keep on doing what you’ve always done, then you’ll keep on getting what you’ve always got.” For nearly 2,000 years, the church of Christ has been teaching lost souls that they need to hear the gospel (Rom. 10:17), believe it (Rom. 1:16), repent of their sins (Acts 17:30), confess their faith (Rom. 10:10) and be immersed into Christ (Gal. 3:27) for the forgiveness of their sins (Acts 2:38).

Yes, there may be some areas where we can improve our methods and our works, BUT we will NEVER improve HIS doctrine! If we set about to tweak HIS plan, in order to be more appealing or to reach more people, and we stop “teaching what we’ve always taught,” then we will stop “getting what we’ve always got”! Souls will not be saved!
