NEEDS FOR THE FOOD PANTRY ARE: CANNED MEATS AND COLD CEREALS

PRAYER IS IMPORTANT

-Jera Stevens, a member of the Sanger church of Christ, has been diagnosed with brain cancer. Please keep her and her family in your prayers.
-Mona Swain is doing better after a health issue she was dealing with recently. Her doctor has proscribed rest and quiet and she has asked us to pray for her. Let us use our most powerful tool as Christians and do that.
-Jerry Hopkins will have hip replacement surgery on September 17th. Please pray all goes well and he recovers quickly with little pain.
-Gina Bumgardner is healing from her recent surgery. She starts radiation in a few weeks. Pray for her and her family as they begin this latest phase of healing and recovery.
-Lynn Nothstein is healing well and may be able to return to work soon. Please keep her and her family in your prayers as she works toward her goals.
 -Please remember all those suffering from cancer: Gina Bumgardner, Ron Brabac, and Hazel Thompson, Hazel's family members. Prayers also for those that are caring for them at this time.
 -Please remember also all those dealing with ongoing illnesses: Karen Anderson and her challenges, Veda Battison and her recovery, Mary Conner and her health struggles, Dorothy Cunningham and her daily dialysis, Sharon Donaghe and her healing, Diane Hemeon and her daily struggles, Blanch Hudson and her recovery, Charles & Judith Scharnagel and their health issues, Daisy Simmons and her daily challenges, and Kerrol Williams and her ongoing health issues, We love these strong Christian examples and admire their wills to keep fighting the good fight and their attendance even when it is difficult to get to church, sometimes not as often as they wish.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Life isn't about how fast you run, or how high you climb, but how well you bounce.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

Anxiety weighs down the heart, but a kind word cheers it up. ~Prov. 12:25Th

ENCOURAGING WORDS

What a Life!

When we are baptized into Christ and become a Christian, we begin a new life in which we are to set aside those things of our old way of life and excitedly pursue our new life in Christ and our new relationship with our Savior and Lord. Jesus summarized His expectations and made this promise, "Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Rev. 2:10). What is involved in being faithful? Consider the following:
Grow. The Lord wants us to increase our knowledge, our faith and our trust in Him, which we are able to do by regularly studying His Word (2 Tim. 2:15) and praying (Col. 4:2).
Worship. The Lord wants us to desire to worship Him and praise Him from our hearts (Heb. 13:15; Eph. 5:19), especially on the first day of each week (Acts 20:7; Heb. 10:25).
Serve. The Lord wants us to look beyond ourselves (Phil. 2:3-4) and to find opportunities to lovingly serve others (Gal. 5:13), knowing that such is also serving the Lord Himself (Col. 3:24; Rom. 12:10-11).
Teach. The Lord wants us to show others the way to heaven by teaching the gospel (Mark 16:15), living a Christian life (Matt. 5:16).
Obey. The Lord wants us to conform our lives to His will by submitting to Him (Jas. 4:7), and obeying His commands (Heb. 5:9; Matt. 7:21).
Prioritize. The Lord wants us to put Christ (Col. 1:18) and His church first in our lives, which will be evident in how we spend our time (Eph. 5:16).
Separate. The Lord wants us to set ourselves apart from the ways of the world (Rom. 12:2; 1 Pet. 2:11), to keep ourselves pure (1 Pet. 1:15-16), and to live godly lives (Tit. 2:11-12).
Endure. The Lord wants us to persevere through difficult times as a Christian (2 Tim. 2:3), looking to Jesus as our example for strength (Heb. 12:1-3) and ever pressing on to the eternal goal of heaven (Phil. 3:14).
Aim. The Lord wants us to set our sights on the glorious reward of heaven and live every day in eager anticipation of the return of Jesus to take the children of God home with Him (Phil. 3:20-21; Tit. 2:13).

God calls upon us to "be faithful," which entails staying true to Him, to His word, to His church, and diligently seeking to please Him above all else! What a wonderful blessing!
