Live Life Like It Matters For Eternity

Put On The New Self
Colossians 3:1-3

3 Therefore if you have been raised up with Christ, keep seeking the things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. 2 Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth. 3 For you have died and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, who is our life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory. 5 Therefore consider the members of your earthly body as dead to immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed, which amounts to idolatry. 6 For it is because of these things that the wrath of God will come upon the sons of disobedience, 7 and in them you also once walked, when you were living in them. 8 But now you also, put them all aside: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive speech from your mouth. 9 Do not lie to one another, since you laid aside the old self with its evil practices, 10 and have put on the new self who is being renewed to a true knowledge according to the image of the One who created him— 11 a renewal in which there is no distinction between Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and freeman, but Christ is all, and in all. 12 So, as those who have been chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience; 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; just as the Lord forgave you, so also should you. 14 Beyond all these things put on love, which is the perfect bond of unity.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

There are no traffic jams on the extra mile.

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. BUT I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you. ~ Matthew 5:41, 44

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Who Do You Resemble?

One of the things I enjoy most about Facebook is seeing pictures of kids, especially pictures of kids whose parents I knew when they were children. It's enjoyable to see the eyes and smiles on the faces of children that look exactly like the eyes and smiles from twenty or thirty years ago.

What makes children resemble their parents so much? That is not a hard question to answer. Let's summarize it in this way: "When children look like their parents on the inside, they'll look like their parents on the outside."

The genetic makeup of children comes directly from their parents. The DNA code for the hair color, the eye color, the facial features, etc. all come from the father and the mother. A child's DNA on the inside is what determines how they look on the outside. That is why they look like their parents.

Let's make a broader and more significant application of this principle. If a human's outward characteristics are a reflection of inward genetic qualities, where do a Christian's outward characteristics originate? If you see a Christian who is humble, servant-hearted and eager to do good unto others, is that not a reflection of an inward "genetic code"? If you see a Christian who is sacrificial, selfless and profusely generous with time, abilities and finances, is that not an outward manifestation of an inward condition?

Consider the Scriptural perspective on this. Paul said, "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God" (Gal. 2:20). The fact that Christ is "in me" directly affects how I live "on the outside"

When the world looks at you, do they see the "family resemblance"? Do they see your Father in you? Do they see your Older Brother in you? Who do they say you look like?
