SIGNUP FOR BRIDGE HOUSE MEAL

There is a signup sheet in the foyer for the meal that will be served at the Bridge House on September 10th. If you would like to help, please take a look.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Congratulations to Russell & Anne Capshaw on the news of a new little one coming their way. May God bless them and their family.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT MEALS

The Wednesday Night Meals fellowship is in desperate need of a leader and workers. Martin's new responsibilities do not allow him to continue in that capacity. We also need six teams of four to serve. This is a great opportunity for each of us to serve each other in this wonderful fellowship. Please see one of the elders if you are interested in helping in this worthwhile work. We will not be having meals in September but hope to have a solution in plenty of time to start them in October.

Thought for Today

Discipline is not what you do TO yourself, it's what you do FOR yourself.
Lou Holtz

Scripture for Today

But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified.
1 Cor. 9:27

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Oh to be Happy!

Happiness....everybody wants it....but it can be so elusive. Well-meaning folks search for it in all sorts of places. Some seek it in material things, some through substance abuse, but most through their own selfish ambitions. On the other hand, there are some people who believe there is no way to be truly happy. Some are living under the delusion that God isn't interested in them enjoying life or being happy. Such could not be further from the truth!

There is a secret to happiness that only Christians know. True happiness is not conditioned upon the erratic circumstances of life. Rather, true happiness is determined by one's relationship with God and how that relationship works through the circumstances and people of life. Consider 1 Peter 3:8-12. If we want to find the true happiness that God has in store for us on earth, here's where it is!

True happiness comes when we keep our tongue from evil! The easy thing to do when evil is spouted at us is to return in like manner! That will not result in true happiness!

True happiness comes when we keep our lips from deceitful speech! It may bring a twisted satisfaction to lead people down a path paved with dishonesty, but that will not result in true happiness!

True happiness comes when we turn away from evil! We must test all things (1 Thess. 5:21), and then flee as far away from sin as we can! True happiness does not associate with sin!

True happiness comes when we do good! This is not addressing doing good in general, but doing good unto others (cf. Gal. 6:10). That's where we will find true happiness!

True happiness comes when we pursue true peace! Being in an ongoing relationship with the Prince of Peace and helping others to find His peace brings true happiness!

Peter reminds us that if we want to be truly happy, then we need to be a blessing to others!
