ENCOURAGING WORDS

Are You Working in the Vineyard?

Jesus described the church as being like the owner of the vineyard who went out at all hours to seek individuals to come to work in the vineyard, promising them a just reward for their efforts (Matt. 20:1-16). The invitation was extended to those who wanted to work. Sometimes, we wrongly view His "vineyard" involving nothing more than assembling whenever it fits our schedule to sit in the vineyard and sing and pray. His question to those at the eleventh hour demands serious thought. "Why have you been standing here idle all day" (v. 6). The owner of our "vineyard" expects us to come to Him to take on a yoke to work for Him. Think about this question as it applies to us, "Why are you not laboring in the vineyard?"

Hebrews chapter four describes the fate of those whose lack of faith kept them from working for the Lord and doing His will. It describes those who left Egypt, came to the edge of the Promised Land and then quit. The Holy Spirit then turns His attention to Christians and urges us, "Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief" (v. 11). God has a Promised Land for us which we will someday enter, but until that time, He expects us to labor.

The closing book of the Bible proclaims, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. 'Yes,' says the Spirit, 'that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow them'" (Rev. 14:13). The Lord's view of those who come to Him is one of men coming to Him, laying down the heavy burdens of this world and taking on His easy yoke. He sees us working in His vineyard and after our death to then rest. Are we busy working in the Lord's vineyard so that we make look forward to our "rest" with Him?!
