THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Stop telling God how big your storm is - instead tell your storm how BIG your GOD is!

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

After I looked things over, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, "Don't be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your families, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes."

Nehemiah 4:14

ENCOURAGING WORDS

2017 – A Great Year Ahead!

Often we reflect at the end of a year and look back to see where we were a year before and then look ahead to where we'd like to be one year from the present. Such a practice has great value in self-evaluation and personal growth in all areas of life!

We talked briefly about the Y2K craze last Sunday morning. As the end of the year 1999 was nearing, there was so much talk and speculation about how computer systems would respond to the date code of the new millennium. Doesn't it seem like just a few weeks ago that all of that was happening? How could that possibly be 17 years ago? Time does get away from us doesn't it?!

Now that we've entered the New Year, let's ask ourselves this: (1) Where were you spiritually 1 year ago? (2) Where are you now compared to 1 year ago? (3) Where will you be spiritually 1 year from now?

Are you closer to God now than 1 year ago? Do you read the Bible more now than 1 year ago? Do you know the Bible better now than 1 year ago? Do you pray more regularly and more fervently now than 1 year ago? Do you attend Bible study and worship more faithfully now than 1 year ago? Are you more active in the church now than 1 year ago?

For me, these are some very soul-searching questions. But, let's turn our attention to the future and where we will be next year at this time. Will you be closer to God; will you be reading your Bible more; will you know the Bible better; will you be praying more regularly and fervently; will you be attending Bible study and worship more faithfully in 10 years; will you be more active in the church in 10 years?

There is only one way to know for sure. Start now! Make it happen! We will not grow accidentally!
