THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The Lord God made all the seasons: winter, Summer, fall and spring; And put his flawless rhythm into each created thing. What better answers are there to prove His holy being., than the wonders all around us, than are ours for just the seeing. ~ Helen Steiner Rice

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

The day is Yours, the night is also Yours; You have prepared the light and the sun. You have set all the borders of the earth; You have had summer and winter.
~Psa. 74:16-17

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Our Lord's Memorial Day

Tomorrow is Memorial Day, a national holiday. It is observed each year on the last Monday in the month of May. The holiday, formerly known as Decoration Day, commemorates military personnel, men and women. Who have died while in service to the United States of America

Today is Sunday, first day of the week, the Lord's Day! It is a Memorial Day that surpasses in significance the holiday our nation will observe tomorrow. This is a day when the Christians who make up the Lord's church are supposed to gather together to worship God and remember the death of our Savior on the cross. He made the ultimate sacrifice, giving His life on that cross for the guilt of our sins. He put His life ofn the line for our debt In order that we could have the opportunity to be set free from the slavery and condemnation of sin. He died to give us a chance to live eternally. In partaking of the Lord's Supper we memorialize His death. In the bread we see the nails driving through His hands and feet and the spear piercing His side. In the cup we see the blood that was shed from His body while hanging on that cross.

Today, each Lord's Day, is a sacred occasion tat deserves our serious consideration and respect. On this day we honor our Savior in His death for us and also announce to the world that He is risen and that He is coming again!

Unfortunately, as with that other Memorial Day, many seem to have forgotten the real significance of the Lord's Day. For many it to has become simply a day of work, a day to sleep late, to work in the yard, play golf, go to the park, or to pursue any of a hundred other personal endeavors. Forgetting what this day is all about leaves us vulnerable to the most dangerous of all enemies, the devil himself, and our careless forgetfulness opens the door to once again becoming his slaves, bound by the chains of sin. We need to remember!
