THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The key to everything is patience. You get the chicken by hatching the egg, not by smashing it

SCRIPTURE FOR TODAY

As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. ~Luke 8:15

ENCOURAGING WORDS

R-E-S-P-E-C-T

Our nation has changed in so many ways, and is so evident in the respect we have for each other. This is reflected in the way we sometimes speak to others. Since the words which come from our lips show what is in our hearts, to solve the problem we need to change the way we see each other. Jesus said, "For out of the overflow of our heart, the month speaks" (Matt. 12:34). The way we talk to each other should be that which edifies and builds up, and imparts"... grace to the hearers" (Eph. 4:29). How should we regard others as we speak with them? How do we show our respect for them?

Paul's instruction to young Timothy illustrates the attitude of respect which should characterize each of us. Evidently, Timothy was faced with rebuking older men who were Christians and needed to make changes in their lives. Paul said, "Do not rebuke and older man harshly, but exhort him as a father" (1 Tim. 5:1). The Greek word for "rebuke" in this passage literally means to "pound, to flatten, to strike with blows." there is never a time for young men to look at older individuals and treat with disdain. Yet, so often in our day the respect for those who are older no longer exists.

Paul then turned his attention to the way. Timothy was to speak to those near his own age or even younger. How should young men treat their peers? Deal with them as you would deal with your own brother. The term, "brotherly love" says so much about the respect we must have for each other (Rom. 12:10; Heb. 13:1; 2 Pet. 1:7).

How should Timothy treat older women? Paul says he should have the same respect he gives his own mother (1 Tim. 5:2). That special place mothers have in our hearts reflects the attitude we need to have toward all older women.

Finally, Paul discussed the respect young men should have toward young women. They should be treated as sisters with all purity!

Take time to apply these principles to every relationship and the respect we should have for each other. Respect everyone. Older and younger, with the dignity God sees in them. It might not change the world, but it changes you!
