ENCOURAGING WORDS

Our Heavenly Dwelling

One of the beautiful passages we read during Miss Betty's "Celebration of Life" was 2 Corinthians chapter 5. It begins with a wonderful description of immortality and the confident assurance that faithful Christians have of eternal salvation. The early verses focus on the longing that our spirits have for an "eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands." While we cannot see it now, that does not matter. The last verse of chapter four reminds of what our faith can see— "So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal." As we consider these scriptures, let's be reminded of three things on which we must focus as we look toward that eternal home.

First, we must make it our goal to please Him. (5:9). We need to remember where we are now and that our purpose while "present" here is to serve the Lord and please Him. Like Jesus, our goal is to "always do those things that please Him." (Jn. 8:29)

Second, we must focus on the judgment. (5:10) Verse 10 explains that "We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ. That each may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad." Our longing for heaven will only be realized if we are prepared for judgment.

Third, we must focus on preparing others for heaven. (5:11) Our Longing for heaven should not be purely selfish. Seeking only to secure our own home there. Because we know about heaven and about judgment, we must persuade others to know and be ready themselves. Our longing for heaven will only be realized if we prepare others for that "great day."

Our God is the one who "has prepared us for this very thing." (5:5) We need to make sure that we are ready— Miss Betty was!
